If you want to start your own business
...give yourself the best chance of success

We know that starting your own business is hard...

- ▶ The sleepless nights filled with worries and self doubt; the pressure to look like you know exactly what you're doing, when in fact your confidence is on the floor - and so the list goes on.

Statistics prove...

...that you increase your chances of succeeding by 49% if you take good advice - but where can you be sure of finding it?

There's lots of free and sponsored advice available, but it's mostly generic and may not be what you need. There are also many good (and bad!) business advisers around to give you advice, but they normally charge at least £100 an hour, which is a heavy cost for a start-up business.

Business Advice Software

Created by experts in customer journey-driven business growth

For nearly 30 years, our founder, Nigel Greenwood, has helped global brands to flourish by mapping their customer journeys and improving customer experience. The approach and reasoning are soundly evidence-based: those companies who offer an outstanding customer experience have the greatest chance of significant success.

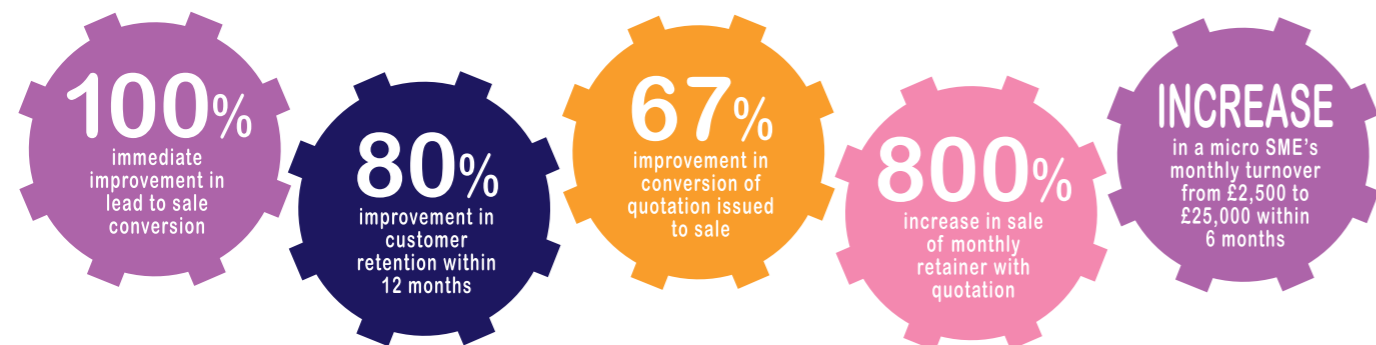

Committed to...

...sharing these blue-chip insights and methods more widely, Nigel launched Simply Customer in 2013 to focus on bringing the benefits of journey mapping and customer experience improvement to SMEs.

He developed a face-to-face process in which probing questions were asked in order to map the different journeys that customers take through a business. His process identified the issues and gaps that trigger complaints and lose both sales and customers. He would then give his clients tailored recommendations as well as sound, proven advice for resolving the issues and/or referrals to other business experts for specialist help.

Here are some examples of the impact his process had on SMEs:

Power in your hands

Now, Nigel has applied his highly successful process to create BuBul, a software package that enables any SME, anywhere to start, grow and thrive more rapidly.

BuBul provides a user-specific set of recommendations, with links to relevant expert advice from those who have been there, done that and built successful businesses. It's a superb way of ensuring success while also saving time, money and effort!

We don't believe in locking people into long term contracts so you can cancel at any time. We think the best way to keep customers is to offer great service and value so BuBul is continually evolving. Launched in March 2021 with 30 experts, we're growing the number of experts every month, adding more recommendations and advice.

By the time you read this we will have over 70 experts on board and we're not stopping there!
